Terms and Conditions

- Bidders participating via any bidding medium agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.
- Permitted bidding media include: face-to-face/in-person, telephone, absentee bid or via the ZOOM platform.
- All prospective bidders must be registered.
- The organisers offer no guarantee of the accuracy of the description, size, photographic representation or quality of the works in the catalogue.
- Although the organisers will execute Absentee Bids for bidders who cannot be present at the auction, we are not responsible for any errors or omissions with an absentee bid. Please complete the Absentee bid form provided at registration and submit it no later than 4 hours before the start of the auction.
- Bidders are asked to identify themselves by their Paddle number and not by name at sign-in to ZOOM.
- Executing a bid constitutes agreement to the terms of sale and is a binding contract to purchase the lot.
- Works will be auctioned by lot number as listed in the catalogue.
- All works are sold 'as is.' The Organisers have the right to withdraw, cancel, nullify or reject the sale of any lot.
- Once a bid is announced 'sold' on the fall of the Auctioneer's hammer, the highest bidder acknowledged has purchased the lot. All sales are binding and final, and the lot becomes the responsibility of the successful bidder.
- The full purchase price plus shipping and packing fees where applicable on each lot sold must be paid before the item is delivered to the buyer.
- All bidders, regardless of the medium by which they bid, are required to pay for their purchase within 24 hours of the auction.
- In-person pick up is by appointment for up to 14 days after the auction.
- Shipment overseas and within Jamaica will be done by a 3rd party agent (packing and shipping costs apply).

Curator's Statement

The 2024 Fine Art Auction represents a profound celebration of Jamaican artistic mastery, showcasing a meticulously curated collection of 80 exceptional pieces. This assemblage spans paintings, ceramics, and sculptures by some of Jamaica's most revered artists, including Barrington Watson, David Pottinger, Albert Huie, Colin Garland, David Boxer, Osmond Watson, and the incomparable Carl Abrahams, among others.

Guided by a profound reverence for Jamaica's rich artistic heritage, this auction transcends the traditional concept of a marketplace. It is a heartfelt homage to the visionaries who shaped Jamaica's cultural landscape, offering collectors a rare opportunity to acquire works that embody the essence of the island's creativity and spirit.

Every brushstroke, sculptural curve, and ceramic glaze tells a story deeply entwined with the vibrancy and resilience of Jamaican culture. This event provides collectors with a dual promise: the acquisition of works that have defined Jamaica's artistic legacy and an investment in pieces whose cultural and monetary value continues to grow.

These artworks are more than mere possessions; they are vessels of cultural heritage, forging connections between Jamaica's past and present. Each piece within this collection is part of an ongoing dialogue, a visual narrative that reflects the values, stories, and enduring spirit of our nation.

We invite you to join this narrative by becoming a steward of Jamaica's artistic heritage. By acquiring one or more of these extraordinary works, you not only preserve their legacy but also celebrate the timeless creativity that defines Jamaica. This collection is a gateway to the soul of our island—a bridge between history and the future. Together, let us honor and share in the enduring brilliance of Jamaican art.
